

HOW TO SUBMIT AND PUBLISH YOUR ABSTRACT

General abstract conditions

1. Abstract is limited to 600 words (including title, captions, references).
2. The abstract must be in English.

General information

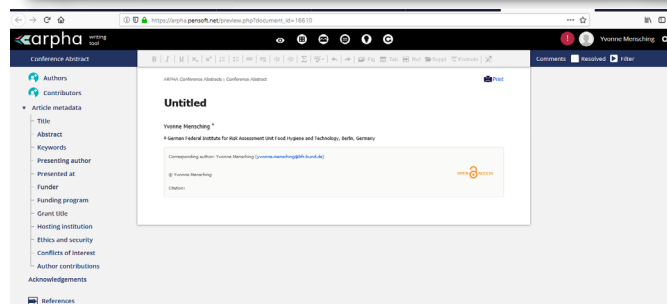

In order to apply for a presentation, the multiple steps need to be done (see Section "Application procedure" at the end of this document). In this document, we provide details about Step 1 "Abstract submission" and Step 6 "Abstract publication".

How to submit your abstract

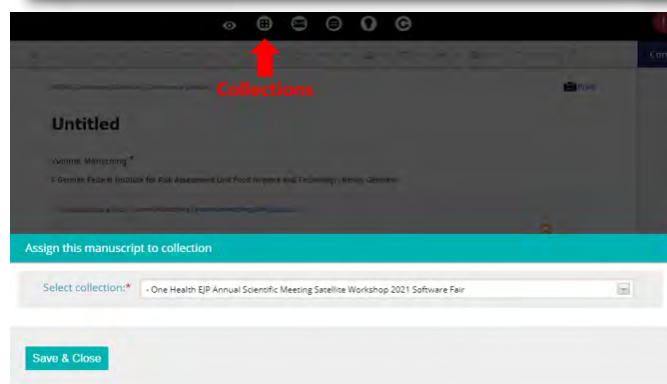

- You will be using Pensoft's ARPHA online publishing platform and submit your abstract to the journal ARPHA Conference Abstracts (ACA)
- Log in or register at <https://aca.pensoft.net/>
- Go to the ASM Satellite Workshop Online Software Fair abstract collection <https://aca.pensoft.net/collection/292/>

Click the "Start new Abstract" button

You will be led to the ARPHA Writing Tool and a new Untitled Abstract opens

Important: Click "Collections" in the top navigation bar of your manuscript and select One Health EJP Annual Scientific Meeting Satellite Workshop 2021 Software Fair, click "Save & Close". This step is very important, as your abstract has to be directed to the correct editors (the ASM Satellite Workshop committee).

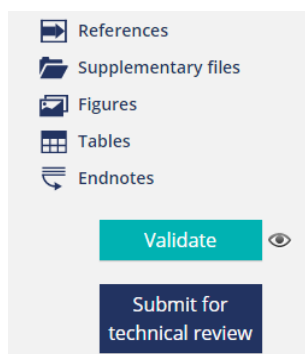

Creating a sustainable European One Health framework by integration and alignment of medical, veterinary & food institutes through joint programming of research agendas matching the needs of European and national policy makers and stakeholders.

Now, you can start to fill in your abstract's metadata from the sidebar at the left by hovering over a category, and clicking on the pencil icon. Mandatory metadata fields are "Title", "Author", "Abstract", "Keywords", "Presenting Author" and "Presented At".

- For details see, <https://arpha.pensoft.net/tips/>
 - o For details how to embed links (URLs), see <https://arpha.pensoft.net/tips/Insert-Hyperlinks>
 - o For details how to include references: start by creating the reference list. You can later link it to your text, see <https://arpha.pensoft.net/tips/References> and <https://arpha.pensoft.net/tips/Cite-references>
 - o For details how to add images (JPEG, GIF & PNG, allowed image size is 15 MB) or tables (which should be cited in the abstract) by clicking on the appropriate icons, see <https://arpha.pensoft.net/tips/Figures>

- When you are ready to submit your abstract, click "Validate" to ensure that mandatory fields are filled in. Note that issues (like missing metadata) might come up and you need time to address these issues. A successful validation will only show the number of characters in your abstract.
- When you are ready to submit your abstract click "Submit for Technical Review"

You successfully submitted your abstract!

How to publish your abstract

- The ASM Satellite Workshop editors may accept, reject, or request changes on your submitted abstract.
- Please use track changes to support the editors to see where you have made changes to the abstract, see <https://arpha.pensoft.net/tips/Track-Changes>
- If your abstract is approved, you will be able to see the "Submit to the journal" button in your manuscript submission.
- Before clicking on it, double check that the name of the person making the presentation at the conference is correct and use the "Validate" button to make sure there are no lingering issues to resolve, see <https://arpha.pensoft.net/tips/Finalise-a-Manuscript>.

A successful validation will only show the number of characters in your abstract.

- Click the "Submit" button. When you are ready to submit your abstract for publication, click the "Submit to the journal" button, then go through the checklist of submission steps.
