

How to travel to Public Health Agency and hotels from Arlanda or Bromma airport

From Arlanda airport:

By Taxi

A taxi from Arlanda to the Public Health Agency of Sweden (PHAS, Folkhälsomyndigheten) or to the hotels cost around 65 Euros, prices will vary between companies. We suggest that you travel with a fixed price. The main companies are:

<https://www.taxistockholm.se>

<https://www.taxikurir.se/>

<https://www.sverigetaxi.se/>

You find the taxistation directly outside the arrivals hall and you pay with your card.

By bus

The easiest and cheapest way to travel to the PHAS, and to Elite Hotel Carolina Tower, from Arlanda is by the airport coach “Flygbussarna”.

The line to PHAS is Liljeholmen.

You should get off at the bus stop called Karolinska Sjukhuset Eugeniavägen. Then you’re very close to Elite Hotel Carolina Tower (address Eugeniavägen 6) and a few minutes’ walk from PHAS (address Nobels väg 18).

If you are staying at The Elite Palace hotel (address Sankt Eriksgatan 115) you can get off at the bus stop Torsplan, and from there it is a 500 m walk.

You have to buy the ticket in advance: <https://www.flygbussarna.se/en/ticket/timetables>

By train

Several companies operate trains from Arlanda Airport, the easiest way to get to PHAS or Carolina Tower is by SL pendeltåg (commuter train) and get off at the stop Odenplan. You can get tickets through the SL app, www.sl.se or at Arlanda Airport station. Make sure that you purchase the special access-fee to be able to leave or get access to Arlanda Airport.

From Odenplan you can take Bus number 6 to Karolinska institutet at should get off at the bus stop called Karolinska Sjukhuset Eugeniavägen (the SL ticket for the train should be valid on the bus). Then you’re very close Elite Hotel Carolina Tower (address Eugeniavägen 6) and a few minutes’ walk from PHAS (address Nobels väg 18).

If you are staying at The Elite Palace hotel (address Sankt Eriksgatan 115) the easiest way is to walk from Odenplan, about 900m.

For more information about Arlanda airport: <https://www.swedavia.com/arlanda/>

From Bromma airport:

By Taxi

A taxi from Arlanda to the Public Health Agency of Sweden (PHAS, Folkhälsomyndigheten) or the Hotels cost around 35 Euros, price will vary between different companies. The main companies are:

<https://www.taxistockholm.se>

<https://www.taxikurir.se/>

<https://www.sverigetaxi.se/>

By bus to PHAS or to hotel Carolina Tower

By airport coach “Flygbussarna” to bus terminal Cityterminalen. From there the easiest way is by taxi. But you can also go by the subway, which is nearby. You take the green line to Sankt Eriksplan and Torsgatan. Then you move on by bus from bus stop Karlbergsvägen and get off at the bus stop called Karolinska Sjukhuset Eugeniavägen. Then you’re very close to hotel Carolina (address Eugeniavägen 6) and a few minutes walk from the Public Health Agency (address Nobels väg 18).

If you are staying at The Elite Palace hotel (address Sankt Eriksgatan 115) you can get off the green line at Sankt Eriksplan, and from there it is about a 600 m walk.

For the airport coach you have to buy the ticket in advance: <https://www.flygbussarna.se/en/ticket/timetables>

For the local subway or bus, you can use your credit card (Visa, MasterCard or American Express) and tap it in the subway barrier and in front of the bus driver. The ticket is valid for 75 minutes.

From hotels to PHAS

If you are staying at the Elite Hotel Carolina Tower, PHAS is only a short walk away 6-8min (around 600 m).

The Elite Palace hotel (address Sankt Eriksgatan 115) is further away, around 1.5 km, a walk that takes about 15-20 mins.

Public Health
Agency

